

Technology of obtaining of cast elements of art articles from carbon-ferrous and non-ferrous alloys by Lost-Foam

Developed technology allows to produce the cast elements of art articles from cast iron, steel, aluminum and copper alloys with weight from 1 up to 1000 kg with the following assembling them into cast constructions according to model principle.

The technology and the model principle of cast construction building allows to create cast furniture, articles of internal and external interiors of apartment houses as well as different street lamps, benches, storm run-off, fences and so on.

